NATIONAL SUGAR DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL ACT

An Act to establish the National Sugar Development Council to provide guidance on the development of sugar estates and the organisation of the sugar cane outgrowers scheme to enhance the local production of sugar.

[1993 No. 88.]
[25th August, 1993] [Commencement.]

1. Establishment of the National Sugar Development Council

   (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the National Sugar Development Council (in this Act referred to as “the Council”) which shall have the functions assigned to it by this Act.
(2) The Council shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

2. Membership of the Council

(1) The Council shall consist of a chairman to be appointed by the President, on the recommendation of the Minister and the following other members to be appointed by the Minister on the recommendation of the bodies which they represent, that is—

(a) two representatives of sugar producers;
(b) one representative of the Food, Beverages and Tobacco Sectoral Group of the Manufacturers Association of Nigeria;
(c) one representative of the Nigerian Customs Service;
(d) one representative of the sugar outgrowers scheme;
(e) one representative of the sugar importers;
(f) one representative of the Federal Ministry of Industry and Technology;
(g) one representative of the Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Water Resources and Rural Development;
(h) one representative of the Federal Ministry of Finance; and
(i) the executive secretary of the Council.
(2) The supplementary provisions contained in the Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the proceedings of the Council and the other matters contained therein.

3. Functions of the Council

The functions of the Council shall be to—

(a) draw policy guidelines and action programmes on sugar development;

(b) provide guidelines on the development of sugar estates and the organisation of the sugar cane outgrower scheme to enhance the viability of sugar plants;

(c) facilitate the availability of credit for sugar cane outgrowers for land preparation and farm inputs in liaison with Federal, State and local government institutions and bodies corporate, whose objectives relate to the objectives of the sugar cane outgrower scheme;

(d) establish, maintain and supervise the Sugar Cane Research and Development Centre to develop new and improved sugar cane technology and sugar cane varieties;

(e) advise on the adaptation of machinery and other processes for sugar development;

(f) set targets and measurements for the performance of local sugar producers;

(g) set and regulate quality standards for local sugar producers and imported sugar;

(h) advise, based on improvements in local sugar production, the Government of the Federation on the rate of tariff to be charged on imported sugar; and
(i) consider and advise on any other matter which is aimed at enhancing the objectives of the Council.

4. Tenure of office of the chairman and members of the Council

(1) The chairman and members of the Council other than ex officio members shall each hold office for a term of four years, subject to renewal by the President for only one further term of four years and no more.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section the Minister may appoint from among the members any person to act as the chairman during the absence or temporary incapacitation by illness or otherwise of the chairman and the person so appointed shall, while the appointment subsists, have the same powers as exercised by the chairman.

5. Secretariat and other officers of the Council

(1) There shall be appointed by the Minister, an executive secretary who shall be the chief executive of the Council and shall be responsible to the Council and the chairman for the day-to-day administration of the Council.

(2) There may be appointed from time to time by the Council, such other staff as may be required for the purpose of the efficient performance of the functions of the Council and the staff appointed under this section shall be paid by the Council such remuneration and allowances as are payable to persons of equivalent grades in the public service of the Federation.

(3) The secretariat of the Council shall be located in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja.

6. Fund of the Council
(1) The Council shall establish and maintain a fund which shall be applied towards the promotion of the objectives for which the Council is established.

(2) There shall be paid and credited to the fund established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section—
(a) ten per cent surcharge on sugar imports;
(b) fees charged for services rendered by the Council;
(c) contributions from the organised private sector; and
(d) all sums accruing to the Council by way of gifts, testamentary disposition and endowments or contributions from philanthropic organisations or persons.

7. Power to accept gifts

(1) The Council may, with the approval of the Minister, accept gifts of land, money or other property upon such terms and conditions if any, as may be specified by the person or organisation making the gift.

(2) The Council shall not accept any gift if the conditions attached by the person or organisation making the gift to the acceptance thereof are inconsistent with the functions of the Council.

8. Power to borrow

(1) The Council may, with the consent of the Minister or in accordance with any general guidelines as may be approved by the President, borrow by way of loan or overdraft from any source any money required by the Council for meeting its obligations and discharging its functions under this Act so however that where the sum or the aggregate of the sum involved at any onetime does not exceed one third of the Council's income no such consent or authority shall be required.

(2) The Council may, subject to the provisions of this Act and the conditions of any trust created in respect of any property, invest all or any of its funds with the consent of the Minister or in accordance with any general guidelines approved by the President.

(3) The Council may invest any surplus of the Council in such securities as may be approved by the President.

9. Annual estimate and accounts

(1) The Council shall cause to be prepared not later than 30 October in each year, an estimate of the expenditure and income of the Council during the next succeeding year and when prepared they shall be submitted to the Minister.

(2) The Council shall cause to be kept proper accounts of the Council and proper records in relation thereto and when certified by the Council such accounts shall be audited as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The accounts of the Council shall be audited not later than six months after the end of the year to which the accounts relate by auditors appointed by the Council from the list and in accordance with the guidelines supplied by the Auditor-General for the Federation.

10. Annual report
The Council shall, not later than 30 June in each year, submit to the Minister a report on the activities of the Council and its administration during the immediately preceding year and shall include in such report a copy of the audited accounts of the Council for that year and the auditor’s report thereon.

11. Staff regulations

(1) The Council may, subject to the provisions of this Act, make staff regulations relating generally to the conditions of service of the staff of the Council and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the appointment, promotion, termination, dismissal and disciplinary control of the staff of the Council; and

(b) appeals by such staff against dismissal or other disciplinary measures, and until such regulations are made, any instrument relating to the condition of service of the office in the civil service of the Federation shall be applicable with such modifications as may be necessary to the staff of the Council.

(2) Staff regulations made under subsection (1) of this section shall not have effect until approved by the Minister, and when so approved the same shall not be published in the Federal Gazette but the Council shall cause them to be brought to the notice of all affected persons in such manner as it may, from time to time, determine.

12. Procedure in respect of suit, against the Council

No suit shall be commenced against the Council before the expiration of a period of one month after written notice of intention to commence the suit shall have been served on the Council by the intending plaintiff or his agent and the notice shall explicitly state—
13. Service of documents

The notice referred to in section 12 of this Act and any summons, notice or other document required or authorised to be served upon the Council under the provisions of this Act or any other enactment or law may be served by delivering the same to the chairman or the executive secretary of the Council or by sending it by registered post addressed to the executive secretary at the principal office of the Council.

14. Restriction on execution against the property of the Council

In any action or suit against the Council, no execution or attachment or process in the nature thereof shall be issued against the Council, but any sum of money which may, by the judgment of the court, be awarded against the Council shall, subject to any directions given by the Council, be paid from the general reserved fund of the Council.

15. Regulations

The Minister may make regulations generally for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

16. Power of the Minister to give directives
Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Minister may give the Council directives of a general nature or relating generally to matters of policy with regards to the exercise by the Council of its functions; and it shall be the duty of the Council to comply with such directives.

17. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Council” means the National Sugar Development Council established by section 1 of this Act;

“Chairman” means the chairman of the Council;

“Member” means a member of the Council and includes the chairman;
